Mardi Gras, Halloween, and St. Patrick's Day all combined on Saturday March 12, 2011, in Louisville as two very festive events coincided to make for a fun, enjoyable day. It also didn't hurt that the weather was spectacular with near 70 degree sunshine!

Here are photos from the St. Patrick's Day Parade, which was held in the afternoon along Baxter / Bardstown Road, and the Lady GaGa concert later that evening at YUM! Arena. Scroll all the way down to view all the photos.
