Scenic landscapes and lovely neighborhoods: Louisville Kentucky is a great place to live and work. To showcase the beauty and heritage of this remarkable community, local architect and historian Steve Wiser has produced this fascinating visual journey through Louisville's past and present.

From our acclaimed Olmsted parks and Churchill Downs, to world renowned Muhammad Ali and Colonel Harland Sanders, Louisville has a rich and colorful heritage which is presented on this less-than 30 minute DVD production.

There are over 100 landmarks and legends mentioned, including: Falls of the Ohio, George Rogers Clark, Louisville Slugger, Frederick Law Olmsted, Courier-Journal, University of Louisville, President Zachary Taylor, Jefferson County Courthouse, Humana Building, David Jones, J. Graham Brown, Louis Brandeis, Farmington, Locust Grove, Al Schneider, West Main Street, and the Belle of Louisville.

If you are a new resident of Louisville, then you will learn the fascinating background of your new home. If you are a native Louisvillian, you'll find out details about your city that you never knew about before.

This pictorial journey will allow you to more fully appreciate the beauty, history, and legacy of our wonderful community. Louisville Landmarks and Legends captures the essence of why we love to call this place home.

Cost of this DVD is $10 (plus shipping and handling if ordered by mail).
